

Seven core virtues on Peace & Reconciliation

01

DIGNITY AND RESPECT

Realizing that every person is important and must be treated with dignity. Respect is the right of every person in all circumstances. Respect your elders and respect others. Respect is reflected in your speech and action.

02

DIVERSITY

Recognizing and appreciating Diversity
Valuing differences in religion, language, ethnicity, race, physical appearance, their individual taste, lifestyle, the way they dress, speak or think. Diversity is richness and should be recognized as a strength.

03

EQUITY, INCLUSIVENESS AND FAIRNESS

Ensuring equal treatment, equal rights and equal opportunities without discrimination and to ensure everybody equally participates

04

TOLERANCE AND EMPATHY

Forgiving and forgetting misunderstandings. Recognizing differences in opinions and not seeing things from one perspective. It is important to understand the feelings, thoughts and experiences of others.

05

FRIENDSHIP AND KINDNESS

Feelings of friendship, support and understanding among all. Being kind to all living things.

06

COMPASSION

Sympathizing and showing concern for the misfortunes of others. Caring, listening and being close to others

07

JUSTICE AND HUMAN RIGHTS

Standing up for your rights and rights of others. Believe in justice and be fair in everything you do.
